

The Zeisset reunion was held in Fellowship Hall of the Leonardville United Methodist Church on October 18, 1969. After a delicious basket dinner, a short business meeting was held with George Weller presiding. An offering for expenses was taken, and $22.90 was turned over to Mrs. Bertha Heikes.

John Llewelyn, Roy Lagerquist, and George Weller were appointed as a committee of three to decide on the time and place of the next reunion and to notify the members.

Everyone present was admonished to register, so a complete count could be taken. There was a total of 100 relatives present according to the registration.

Rev. Merton Zeisset had some copies of the complete roll call available to those desiring them. An effort is being made by Rev. Zeisset to compile a complete family history, and he made a plea for additional information from those present.

Those in each family then stood and introduced themselves. The following families were well represented:

Mrs. Juergen (Bertha) Nanninga
Mrs. George (Elizabeth) Weller
Mr. Jacob Zeisset
Mrs. Lew (Betty) Hoerman
Mr. Henry Zeisset

There was no one present from the Mrs. John M. (Louise) Swart family.

Some interesting history of the Zeisset family as compiled by Paul Zeisset was read by Rev. Merton Zeisset.

Ray Zeisset is desirous of getting some present addresses of relatives in Germany before taking a trip there.

The following program was then presented:

Vocal Solo - George Weller

Two Readings - Albert Nanninga

Piano Solo - Kathy Cott

Piano Solo - Jana Lindquist

Vocal Solo - Rev. Merton Zeisset

Rev. Jacob Nanninga gave some pertinent remarks to the group and led all in singing "How Great Thou Art" and "Blest Be the Tie That Binds". Rev.

Nanninga then closed the meeting with prayer, and everyone enjoyed the visiting and fellowship that followed.
